Types of Membership and Costs

Associate memberships are in effect for 3 months (if available) of the year in which membership is extended. Associate Membership is primarily geared toward high school and college individuals who can only row a limited period of time during the year. This type of membership is also open to a limited number of individuals who have completed SRS rowing classes and/or have been judged competent to row.

Voting Memberships are open to anyone who has attained the age of 18, and is, in the opinion of such evaluators as SRS shall select, be judged competent to row, at a minimum, in a recreational single under normal circumstances on the Occoquan River. Any new Voting Member must complete a one-year trial period in SRS prior to being considered for permanent membership.

Every application for membership will be presented to the SRS membership for a vote. The applicant will be approved for membership upon a majority vote of a quorum.

- I am applying for an Associate Membership with annual fees of $150.
- I am applying for a Voting Membership with onetime initiation fee of $150, plus annual fee of $275.

Please email completed application to SandyRunScullers@gmail.com
Fees will be collected upon membership approval.
